Just in time for Easter. Here's In Search of Easter. Come, see Scottie and his pup, Simon search for the true meaning of Easter.

'In Search of Easter' Is written as a creative and an entertaining story for children, teens, young adults - readers of all ages really - about the finding Easter. This story helps children celebrate the Easter season and is a great way for adults to help young readers celebrate the season!!

Come check out this story today!

In Search of Easter! Is a fun and entertaining story about a young boy and search and rescue pup who search the neighborhood for the true meaning of Easter.

Scottie and the dogs
join the fun at an Easter egg hunt
where the dogs find all the eggs!

With his mom and dad and the three adult search and rescue dogs close behind, Scottie and his pup, Simon, set out to find Easter.

They visit a neighbor
and then go to the post office for a letter from Grandma.

At the library, they enjoy crafting and treats!

At the local store,
Scottie receives a sack with a gift
with his snack.

Meeting a friend in the park, Scottie shows him the small block of wood he was given at the grocery story and shares how he's been looking for Jesus

Brother Bill tells Scottie the Easter story as he carves the small block of wood. Scottie watches.

Brother Bill tells Scottie about the day they crucified Jesus
on a Cross.

Come and see Scottie and hear the Easter message again!

And when they took Jesus to Calvary—the place where they put Him on the Cross, there were two criminals who were also led to their deaths.

The two criminals were put on crosses on each side of Jesus. One of them asked Jesus to remember him when Jesus went to Heaven.

Jesus looked at him and said, ‘Today you will be with Me in heaven too.’

Luke 23

Being able to go to heaven is as simple as telling Jesus you want to be in Heaven with Him. We cannot save ourselves, it is a free gift from God. Ephesians 2.8

Terrie Sizemore has loved writing and literature all her life. She created A 2 Z Press for others with the same dreams and aspirations. In Search of Easter was created to help families with young children share the Eternal Story of Jesus' death and resurrection to save us and take us to heaven.
